7 It does not seem to be a legitimate function of the Agriculture Committee to have anything to do with the circulation of newspapers which do not deal with agricultural matters wholly. There is no objection to the Education Committee undertaking it. Whichever Committee undertakes the work, it should work through the managing of the Village Committees.

8 I have already drawn up a scheme for Village libraries and after the scheme is sanctioned the working and the details may be undertaken by the Village Committee. There is no doubt that for some time
